U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT
RICHMOND DIVISION

Dear Judge Phillips,

We, the majority of the congregation of Richmond Christian Center (RCC) are writing to you concerning Case Number 13-36312. The purpose of our letter is to clarify some statements that were made in the bankruptcy hearing held on November 3, 2015. These statements are:

- Pastor Steve A. Parson, Sr., has been callings members of the congregation to solicit monies
- Pastor Parson has discouraged members from contributing to the "Capital Victory Campaign"
- Congregants of RCC DO NOT want Pastor Parson to return

Judge Phillips, the majority of the members of RCC is refuting the statement that Pastor Parson has been calling members soliciting monies. This statement was discussed and challenged in our RCC Leadership meeting which was held at RCC on November 4, 2015. Not a single person in attendance could confirm that Pastor Parson called any RCC member asking for monies.

It was also discussed at the Leadership meeting concerning the statement that Pastor Parson has been discouraging members from contributing to the "Capital Victory Campaign". Once again, it was NOT confirmed that this statement had ever been made by our Pastor. As a matter of fact, when the "Capital Victory Campaign" was first kicked off, Pastor Parson was the first to give toward the Campaign. We pose this question to you Judge Phillips, does this sound like a person that would discourage others from contributing?

In reference to statements made that members of RCC DO NOT want Pastor Parson to return, Judge Phillips, nothing could be further from the truth. We, the majority of the members of RCC are in full support of our Pastor returning to the pulpit. We have been deprived of his anointed teachings for ten months now, and we so look forward to his return. As RCC moves forward through the confirmation process of the bankruptcy, the worst thing that could happen is for the Founder and Pastor of RCC for thirty-four years, Pastor Steve A. Parson, Sr., not be permitted to return. The RCC trustees (Hickman, Partridge, & Yarborough) have not kept us informed as to when Pastor Parson will return. Various members of RCC have questioned the Trustees during church services on several occasions as to the return of Pastor Parson, as well as, our belief that the Trustees have withheld pertinent information from the congregation, sharing only what they deem necessary. It seems like it is an intentional misrepresentation by the Church Trustees to the congregation as it pertains to our Pastor's return to the pulpit of RCC. We, the majority of this congregation are fed up with the lack of clarity and the divisiveness displayed by the RCC Trustees.

Judge Phillips, we believe the statements made on November 3rd are character assassinations against our Pastor and felt a dire need to clarify these untrue statements. The majority of the congregation of RCC trust that you will seriously consider this letter for the purpose of voicing our concerns, as well as, clarifying the statements made. Attached are signatures of those congregants that miss our Pastor and cannot wait until he returns to the pulpit, the place that God has ordained him to be.

Respectfully,

Larry & Etta Bond & The Majority of RCC's Congregation
